Alternative Equivalent Compliance Information

1. An application for alternative equivalent compliance must be reviewed by either the Planning Board and/or Restoration Board. The Restoration Board reviews the application if the alternative standard is for a requirement in the RA District. The Planning Board reviews all other applications.
2. The alternative equivalent compliance procedure and criteria are established in Section 154.03(G) of the Tipp City Zoning Code.
3. Approval of an alternative equivalent compliance application does not guarantee any other approvals (e.g., site plan or zoning permit reviews). The applicant shall be responsible for applying for any other necessary permits or reviews.
4. The application fee for an alternative equivalent compliance is due at the time the application is submitted.
